

DAILY NEWS

Saturday, October 16, 2010

Phuket time: 12:49 PM

'My Storage' opens in Phuket

My Storage management at the launch event held in late October.

PHUKET: A new 50-million baht storage facility providing secure, clean and cost effective self-storage has opened in Patong.

Located in Jungceylon, this is the first branch in Thailand for the My Storage company. Storage space varies in size from one to 40 square meters. The new facility has a minimum rental period of one month.

Managing Director Sukanda Chiaranussati said after the facility's recent opening: "Patong was chosen because many people live there temporarily, especially foreigners, and they might like to keep their belongings secure."

The company provides a high level of security, with CCTV and personal code services available. Insurance is not included in the monthly rental fee.

The launch featured a special promotion on contracts longer than four months.

My Storage plans to open a new service in Bangkok soon.

– Atchaa Khamlo